Hinds County Veterans Day 2017 Observance

Board Member to Make Wreath Presentation Honoring Veterans

Hinds County, MS – The Hinds County Board of Supervisors will have its Annual Veterans Day Wreath Laying Ceremony on Friday, November 10, 2017 to honor veterans of all wars. The ceremony will be held on the front lawn of the Hinds County Courthouse located at 407 East Pascagoula Street, Jackson, Mississippi. The program will commence at 9:30 a.m. and will conclude at 10:30 a.m.

The public is cordially invited to show support for those living and deceased veterans that made tremendous sacrifices for our freedoms. We look forward to commemorating this day for all Hinds County veterans and their families.

In the event that inclement weather is experienced the ceremony will be relocated inside the courthouse.

About Hinds County

The Hinds County Board of Supervisors is extremely proud of the improvements that are occurring in our great County, "A Very Special Place".

Hinds County has so much to offer our approximately 250,000 residents and the hundreds of thousands of visitors we greet each year. From the fast-paced, emerging, revitalized downtown district of the State's capital city to the charming, peaceful, fields of the countryside our county has many things to offer for everyone.

The County has a rich southern history with a bright, diverse future and is an outstanding place to live, work, play and raise your family. Experience Hinds County and find out why we welcome you to the County!
